

Figure 1 is a false-color image of the NGC 6052 field. The image shows a dark background with various colored spots representing stars. A central region is marked with a red cross. Several regions are outlined with dashed and dotted lines. A compass rose in the upper right indicates North (N) and East (E). The axes are labeled 'Arc Seconds' and range from -30 to 30.

XMM SSC
Apr 25 18:06:48 2019